

English World ClasSIX Courses 2016

Our English World ClasSIX course is a demanding programme for both aspiring professionals and working executives. Our clients are time-poor, which is why we offer a highly intensive course, tailored to the specific needs of each class. Students are placed in realistic professional scenarios to develop the language and skills relevant to their needs. In our morning workshops, students work on developing their fluency and communication skills to ensure a confident and assured performance in English. In the afternoons the group dynamics change promoting renewed energy and focus.

Course Content

Task Knowledge (09:00 – 10:00)

This session presents the language (expressions, grammar and vocabulary) for a range of business tasks and scenarios. Controlled practice using drills and exercises develops accuracy in the language.

Active Scenario (10:15 – 11:15)

Students take the language that was introduced in Task Knowledge and put it into practice in a scenario which develops throughout the week.

Knowledge for the Professional Community (11:30 - 12:30)

Development of important professional soft skills, plus the language of managing, leading and project management.

Language Focus (13:30 – 14:30)

Functional English for the professional environment. This session builds skills in telephoning, business writing and socialising.

Confident Spoken Performance (14:45 – 15:45)

In this fluency session you develop your confidence and skills in a range of speaking situations through role-plays, presentations and public speaking activities.
